

2. The University shall provide appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities in all academic programs and activities.
3. The University shall provide appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities in all academic programs and activities.

E. Student Accessibility Services Policy

The University is committed to providing a learning environment that is accessible to all students, regardless of their physical or mental abilities. This policy outlines the University's commitment to providing appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities in all academic programs and activities.

The University's commitment to providing appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities is based on the following principles:

- 1) All students have the right to an equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from the University's educational programs and activities.
- 2) The University shall provide appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities in all academic programs and activities.

The University's commitment to providing appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities is based on the following principles:

- 1) All students have the right to an equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from the University's educational programs and activities.

3.

New Brunswick Human Rights Code (1992), Section 5 (1)

5(1) _____

() _____

) -

“The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”

)

3.3) “The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”

3.3)” “The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”

3.3)” “The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”

)

“The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”

)

“The student is responsible for the content of their work. The student is responsible for the content of their work.”
employed as tutors and/or note takers) must treat all