

GRID-1006. Introduction to Great Books

This course is a survey of the Western intellectual tradition. It covers the major works of the Western canon, including Plato's Republic, Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics, Cicero's De Officiis, Augustine's City of God, Aquinas's Summa Theologiae, Machiavelli's The Prince, Shakespeare's Hamlet, and Milton's Paradise Lost. The course is designed to provide students with a solid foundation in the history of Western thought and literature.

GRID-2006. The Quest for the Good Life (HMRT 2206)

This course is a survey of the Western intellectual tradition. It covers the major works of the Western canon, including Plato's Republic, Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics, Cicero's De Officiis, Augustine's City of God, Aquinas's Summa Theologiae, Machiavelli's The Prince, Shakespeare's Hamlet, and Milton's Paradise Lost. The course is designed to provide students with a solid foundation in the history of Western thought and literature.

