

2. Scholarship and Bursary Students

Students who are awarded a scholarship or bursary are not required to pay tuition fees. However, they are still responsible for paying other expenses such as books, supplies, and living expenses. The amount of the scholarship or bursary will vary depending on the student's financial need and the institution's policies.

3. Interest Charges

Students who are awarded a scholarship or bursary are not required to pay interest charges on their loans. However, they are still responsible for paying the principal amount of the loan.
